

US-ASIA INSTITUTE LEADERSHIP

ABOUT THE US-ASIA INSTITUTE

Since 1979, the US-Asia Institute (USAI)—a private 501(c)(3) Washington DC-based nonprofit and a United Nations-affiliated NGO—has strengthened bilateral relationships between the peoples and governments of the United States and Asia. USAI is unmatched in connecting, engaging, and building understanding at the highest levels. A nonpartisan organization with no policy or monetary agenda of its own, USAI is unparalleled in its depth of connections with Congressional Members and staff as well as within the diplomatic community. Over the years, USAI has built a bond of trust and mutual respect, succeeding in keeping channels for discussion open. USAI strives to provide policy makers, advisors and emerging leaders with the tools and opportunities to engage in U.S.-Asia relations through high-level international exchanges and dialogue, educational initiatives, and networking opportunities.
